

EATING & DRINKING IN BRIGHTON

FOOD

The Chilli Pickle - Pete Newell recommends the aubergine curry!

Earl's Sandwiches - great for a Banh Mi

FIKA - for a cardamom bun or omelette sub!

Gingerman Group Restaurants - run by local couple Ben & Pamela McKellar

La Choza

Lark and Bloom Coffee House - home to Lark & Bloom Library

Mowgli

Moonstone Sri Lankan

Namo Eat - in The Eagle Pub in North Laine (Thai) - David Brenner's favourite is Khao Soi, a curry noodle soup

No No Please

Palmito - the BEST EVER says Daniella Kiernan!

Permit Room - mean egg naan and bottomless chai, great for brunch, and black dhal for later in the day

Pizza 500 - relaxed, good value, authentic Italian pizza

Planet India - great for vegetarian and vegan Indian food

Red Snapper - "born in Thailand, made right here"

Purezza - great for vegan pizza & more

Saero - Korean

Shaanxi - fantastic hand-pulled Chinese noodles

Pizza VIP - best in town, says David Karp!

DRINKS

The Caxton Arms - modest & friendly

The Urchin - brews fantastic beers on site and has fresh seafood

Lion & Lobster - cool roof terrace close to the convention centre

Babble - nice café/bar/restaurant on the sea front
